With a few exceptions, the information contained in the "Directory" entries was given by the authors in answer to the following circular:—

Persons having to do with books and writers are often put to great trouble through the want of a convenient source of information for certain data, which it is the object of this volume to supply. Such a work, admirably conducted, is published annually in Germany, but nothing of the kind has been attempted for English authors. The compiler has in view chiefly the wants of catalogers, but the work will also be of service to editors, and all professional writers not of the first rank. The success of the work will of course depend upon the readiness with which the persons concerned respond to this invitation to communicate the information desired. But such as come under this head are begged to notice that the less known a writer is, the greater the value of the facts requested, since, in the case of famous authors, they are readily obtained elsewhere. By answering the following questions, therefore, you will contribute to the convenience of many persons.

1. FULL name [including middle name (not initial). If married, maiden name, and also if remarried, name of first husband].
2. Any PSEUDONYM you may have used, either in books or in periodicals.
3. Post-office address.
4. If writing for the press is an avocation, please state your vocation,—as teacher, journalist, etc.
5. Date and place of birth; if related to another author of same name, how?
6. If a college graduate, place and date of graduation.
7. Name of periodicals in which you have written ANONYMOUSLY.
8. On what subjects do you prefer to write? (This question is intended to bring out a writer's speciality. Where practicable, please be particular in mentioning the topics which you discuss:—When what you have in mind is ichthyology, or the Nibelungenlied, avoid so general answers as "science," or "literary criticism.")
9. Name of any ANONYMOUS book or article you may have published.

The compiler is fully conscious that this issue is very defective. He hopes, however, that the authors whose names are in the "Directory" will favor him with additional data, (especially with change of post-office), with the least delay possible, and also that omitted or new writers will communicate the essential facts in their literary career.

A * attached to an author's name indicates that the request for information has been unanswered.

The compiler gratefully acknowledges the help kindly given by the editors of The Atlantic, Century, Harper's, New Princeton, etc.

Communications should be addressed to

W: M. GRISWOLD,

206 Del. Av.,

Washington.

DIRECTORY OF AUTHORS.

A name inclosed in () is the maiden name, or name of first husband; a name in [] is one not generally used.

When an author's name is printed in ITALICS, this indicates that the account of him is to be looked for in the former edition of the Directory, only corrections or additions being given in such cases.

* * List of recently dead Authors follows the Directory.

The "MONTHLY INDEX" is the title of a useful index of leading American and European journals. No. 1, for January, is a broadside printed on stout mailla paper. No. 2, for February, is somewhat larger, and No. 3, for March, half as large again. The price is 25 cents a year. A column is devoted to correspondence—a sort of notes-and-queries department. This will not supersede the 'Annual Index', which will continue to be published at $1." Mr. Griswold has introduced a convenient system of cross-references; the entries are numbered from 1 to 202, and the references are made very briefly by these numbers; thus, under Christian religion he refers to the headings Atonement, Catholic church, Evangelicalism, Revelation; but instead of printing these words at length, he simply prints "Atonement, 13, 35, 63, 162." So under Fiction, references to 16 articles are made in four short lines. There is no reason why any one with brains enough to run a library should find any difficulty in using it; but probably some will fancy that they would, and therefore refrain from trying.—The Library Journal, March.

The Q. P. Indexes : "Each of which," according to INDEX to ESSAYS (No. 13), Dr. S. A. Allibone says want that has long been felt and often expressed ; and to receive that the works included, some 700 or 800, have been 'Essays.' . . Examination shows it to be invaluable given to the most important essays. . . The mode of literary workers."—The Bookseller (London), 4, 10, 1882.

Some very quiet but most valuable work is being done in what are known as the "Q. P. Indexes." They are invaluable to every literary worker, and have gained approval abroad, the Oracle, London, having lately given a full description of them : — "In America is published yearly an index to the principal magazines, from which you may learn, for instance, . . . Small marks show whether an article is a review, poetry, fiction, illustrated, a translation, or whether it may be characterized in half-a-dozen other different ways. . . Why does not one or another of those who are constantly asking us how an income may be made or added to, do a similar service for English magazine readers? Chief qualifications for the work are perseverance, accuracy, and that uncommon endowment, common sense. Let some one possessing these send to Bangor, Maine, U. S., for a copy of Q. P. Index's Annual for 1881 as a pattern, and then set to work on some English periodicals. Poole's Index to all periodical literature will not supersede such works as Q. P. Index's." Our Continent, 1, 11, 1882.

You are doing a good work for every library or professional man who has for years accumulated any of the leading periodicals in anything like completeness. In my own case, you have not only removed all temptation to dispose of a large collection of periodicals to the second-hand dealers, because there was so much labor in making them available, but you have placed in my way the temptation to complete some sets to which I have been a subscriber for years.—Rev. E. S. Frisbie, President, Wells College, No. XVIII of the Q. P. Indexes is a General Index to the Last Five Volumes of the Nation, from Oct. 1880 to 1885. This is a catalogue by authors or subjects, or both, which, by the application of the Q. P. Index system to the contents of one periodical brings the contents of the entire five years' issue into orderly arrangement, and makes it easy to find anything published during that period. We have expressed our admiration of the Q. P. Indexes in general. The method is yet better when applied to arrange the contents of one journal.—The Independent, 4 Feb., 1886.

"The indexes which I have received from you have saved me more time and labor than can be imagined. I would not be without them at any price."—M. A. Sanders, Pawtucket Public Library. "Such indexes are just what I want."—State of Michigan Librarian. "They are simply invaluable."—T. W. Higginson. [THE ANNUAL.] "Indispensable to everybody who makes use of current literature. The arrangement is so ingenious that the number and page of every publication that contains mention or discussion of the subject sought for are indicated at a glance."—N. Y. World, 14, 3, 1882. "They have multiplied many times the usefulness of our magazines."—A. Tison, Librarian Olivet College.

The ANNUAL INDEX (price, during year of issue, $1.)—list of all the articles that appeared during the year in 23 different American and easily learned, so that, while reference is easy, the whole is compact (July, 1883.) "Invaluable. . . Work is done as only a trained Q. P. Index Annual for 1882 is at hand, bearing evidence of independent systematic indexing, with an ingenious plan of space-saving abbreviations may be gained from the fact that no less than 23 of the leading publications so compact in form that it can be kept even on an over-crowded desk..
